CAMBRIDGE CLOSES SENIOR HOUSING/HEALTHCARE LOANS TOTALING $61.6 MILLION IN FIRST HALF OF 2016

Cambridge Realty Capital Companies reports closing six HUD Section 232 loans totaling $61.6 million during the first half of 2016.

Cambridge is one of the nation's leading senior housing/healthcare lenders, with more than 4.5 billion in closed transactions. "The company has consistently ranked among the top FHA-approved HUD lenders in the country," says Cambridge Chairman Jeffrey A. Davis.

During the first half, a $13.5 million loan for Alden Gardens of Waterford, a 121-bed Assisted Living property in Aurora, Ill., was the largest loan amount. A $7.6 million loan to refinance the Alden Princeton skilled nursing facility in Chicago was the smallest.

Privately owned since its founding in 1983 as a real estate investment banker specializing in commercial real estate properties, Cambridge today has three distinctive business units: FHA-insured HUD loans, conventional financing, and investments and acquisitions. The company is one of the nation's leading senior housing and healthcare debt and equity capital providers, with more than 400 closed senior housing transactions totaling more than $4.5 billion since the early 1990's, when the firm began its specialization in providing senior housing capital.

Cambridge has consistently ranked among the country's top five FHA-insured HUD lenders (now HUD Lean) over the last 15 years and offers an array of conventional lending options, including permanent construction and interim loans on either a floating or variable rate basis. The company's principal investment strategy includes direct property acquisitions, joint ventures and sale/leasebacks. The company has acquired 16 facilities totaling approximately $60 million.

Cambridge is the creator of The Signature Experience[™], a four-step process designed to transform the traditional lender/borrower relationship and identify "ideal" capital solutions for worthy projects. The company has a national origination office in Los Angeles, and numerous correspondent and brokerage relationships nationwide.
